

Quakers Not To Fight in Case of War

Decision Made at Meeting of Permanent Board
Oct. 6

The Permanent Board of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends met at the Newberg Friends Church Thursday morning October 6. S. Lewis Hanson was presiding clerk and Rebecca Smith recording clerk. The board did not accept the proposition to re-enter the American Friends Service Committee. However, individuals and individual meetings are privileged to make connection with this committee. The following action was taken by the board.

We wish to reaffirm our statement in regard to peace as expressed in our discipline as follows:

"We feel bound explicitly to avow unshaken persuasion that all war is utterly incompatible with the plain precepts of our divine Lord and Lawgiver, and the whole spirit of His Gospel, and that no plea of necessity or policy, however urgent or peculiar, can avail to release either individuals or nations from the paramount allegiance which they owe to Him who hath said, 'Love your enemies.' (Matt. v.44, Luke vi. 27.) In enjoining this love, and the forgiveness of injuries, He who has bought us to Himself has not prescribed for man pre-

Minister, Chapel Speaker, Thursday

Mr. Aiken of the Free Methodist church Newberg addressed the student body in chapel Thursday, Oct. 5.

Mr. Aiken very ably stressed the necessity for having and maintaining a correct balance between a healthy body and mind. To form the Triad with body and mind all humans also have the spiritual part of their balance which should not be out of proportion to the rest of their character.

As an example for young men and women to follow Mr. Aiken presented the Biblical character, Moses, who after 40 years of preparation realized his inadequacy and then returned to the wilderness. There he spent another 40 years preparing himself to be the leader of the people of Israel.

To contrast character and personality Mr. Aiken presented the famous man Napoleon whose spiritual training had been practically untouched and who died a lesser man for that reason.

On the other hand the man called John in the Bible was also banished to an island before his death, but by having spiritual satisfaction he maintained his plane of leadership until the end.

PROGRAM CHAIRMAN'S COMMITTEES CHOSEN

The chairman for the committees for Homecoming have been appointed and are beginning to lay plans for the annual affair Nov. 11.

Those in charge of committees are: Irene Swanson, invitations and registrations; Janet Phipps, LeRoy Pierson, and Stanley Keller, afternoon program; Ruth Hodson, banquet; Alfreda Martin, decoration; Howard Harrison evening program, and Bob Sietoff, generalissimo.

New Faces Seen On Faculty Staff

Faculty changes this year have brought four new personalities to the teaching force.

Mrs. Marian Sanders has taken the place of Miss Lois McCurley as director of physical education for women, teacher of dramatics and public speaking and matron of the women's dormitory. Mrs. Sanders obtained her A. B. degree from Earlham College, and this year took her M. A. degree at Pennsylvania State College.

Richard T. Binford is the new librarian, replacing Miss Esther Allen, who resigned to accept a position in the library at Oregon State College. Mr. Binford is a graduate of Guilford College, N. C. with a B. S. degree. He took his course in librarianship at the University of North Carolina. Mr. Binford was a leader in student affairs at college and devoted time to the contrasting fields of music and football.

Mrs. Beulah Serurier Ramsay has been chosen to handle Spanish and French classes. Mrs. Ramsay is French by nationality, but her training in the fields of French and Spanish has been in American schools and colleges. She holds a B. A. from the University of Washington and a M. A. degree from the University of Southern California.

Records Reveal Enrollment of 92

Late registrations have increased the present enrollment to a total of 92 students, the office records disclosed Thursday. Men students are in the majority this year as they composed over half of this number.

Freshman class with 46 members is the largest in school and the largest first year class for several years.

Sophomores are second in enrollment with 19 members at the present time.

There are now 15 seniors and the class lacks but one of equaling last year's graduating class, which was the largest in the history of the college.

Junior class has shown the largest drop from enrollment with only six members returning.

In addition to these several special students enrolled.

CALLING ALL ENTERTAINERS!

All students who can sing; play a musical instruments; tell an old joke; tell a new joke; perform magic; juggle; tumble; write or act in a humorous skit; perform stunts; master a good southern drawl; play a harmonica, a musical comb, on the floor; recite poetry; give serious or humorous readings; dramatic monologues; imitations; or clever takeoffs on things or people in the community plan to try out for the minstrel to be given November 11th. Whether you are convinced that you are good or not, plan immediately to be present for auditions and try-outs on the fifteenth of October. To plan your number or for further information see Howard Harrison or Mr. Sanders.

Faculty Pleased By Sociability Of Student Body

Well, students and faculty, here we are for a 1939-40 session at P. C. with a new girls' dorm, new drive-way, new cement walks, and, added to our faculty, four new members, and a grand new class of forty-two smiling freshmen.

When one charming freshman coed who graduated from a large high school in Portland was asked how she liked Pacific College, her first reply was, "how easy it is to become acquainted!"

When a husky freshman man who should prove to be tough opposition for any of our opponents during football season, was interviewed, he commended the students for their sociability and spirit of cooperation.

Mr. Richard Binford, our librarian, would like to compliment the students for their attitude toward studying. His closing

Y. M. MEETS RECORDS LARGE ATTENDANCE

The first Wednesday meeting of the Y. M. was held two weeks ago. The officers were introduced and the new students were given an opportunity to join. An attendance of 40 was recorded.

The meeting of last week was devoted to a discussion led by Stanley Keller concerning our relationship to the church.

All proved very interesting and we hope to continue it in the near future. Come on boys let's make a bigger and better "Y" this year.

Freshman Week Initiation Staged

Wiener Roast Follows Friday Night Initiation

On Monday, Oct. 2, the annual Freshman initiation officially got underway. The following rules were enforced by the sophomores during the week:

1. Green ribbons two inches wide must be held in evidence.
2. Freshman girls do not wear make-up.
3. Men do not shave all week.
4. Freshmen must wait until sophomores have left chapel before leaving.
5. Freshmen must carry upper classmen's books when asked, and thank them for the privilege.
6. Must enter and leave by the front door.
7. All freshmen must speak and bow when meeting upper classmen.
8. Men are to bring paddles to chapel Friday.
9. No freshmen are allowed dates this week.

Besides these rules and restrictions a daily assignment was given. This consisted of such things as: wearing an article of clothing backward, walking backwards upstairs, wearing unmated

Minstrel Will Celebrate P. C. Homecoming

Howard Harrison Selected
To Head Producing
Staff

As part of the annual Homecoming activities to be held on the eleventh of November, the student body voted in student chapel to produce an oldtime minstrel in place of the usual one-act play. Irvin Atrops selected Howard Harrison as head of the committee producing the minstrel. Harrison has been well trained for the position through his activities in the college's dramatic department.

The students decided to produce a minstrel this year for several reasons. First, in order to celebrate the completion of the remodeling of Canyon Hall a jubilee minstrel seemed to come nearer expressing the delight felt by all those connected with the college. Second, the minstrel

Speakers Bureau Organized by P. C.

Will Provide Student Speakers
For Outside
Programs

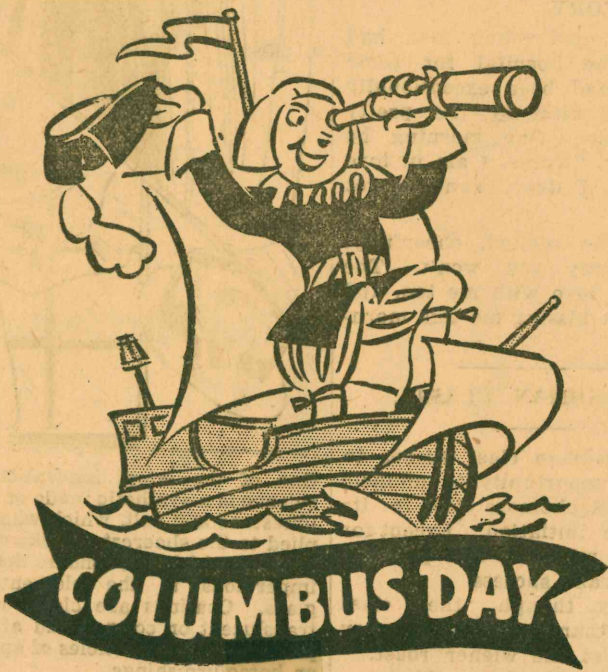

The Speaker's Bureau of Pacific College was initiated at a faculty meeting, October 2. The Speaker's Bureau is to consist of members of the faculty and of the student body, and is organized for the purpose of supplying local groups with programs suitable for presentation in their club meetings. Individual notices of topics available for program presentation have been sent to local organizations this week. Calls for speakers will be filled by members of the Speaker's Bureau.

The college is in this way serving in the capacity of intermediary between groups desiring speakers and other forms of entertainment and groups prepared to produce programs. The college will assume responsibility for the calibre of the preparation of speeches, and the composition of the programs presented to the public.

At present the Bureau is prepared to supply programs relative to the present neutrality issue. Students or faculty interested in contributing immediately to this project of the Bureau are urged to see Professor Sanders as soon as possible. General talent will be in demand throughout the season, however, and speakers, soloists, publicity workers, students interested in dramatic presentations, or specialty entertainment of various kinds should also contact Professor Sanders.

The Speaker's Bureau of Pacific College will meet a need in

First I Ought to Say—

Thank you for electing me to the position of editor of this publication. It is to be regretted that the one chosen by you last year was forced to leave school. And it is now my responsibility to carry the paper on as well as she would have done. This I will try to do. . . .

remark was, "Pacific College is to be complimented for its fine library facilities.

Mrs. Sanders, matron of the women's dormitory is pleased with the receptiveness of the students.

Last, but by no means the least, Mr. Sanders mentioned four-fold subjects about which he wished to express himself; namely,

1. He wishes P. C. could organize an inter-scholastic tennis tournament for mixed doubles.
 2. He admires our football squad and will give them his loyal support.
 3. He thinks the students at Pacific college are very sociable.
 4. He believes Pacific college has a very fine library considering the size of the school.
- Well, students, it looks like a banner year for Pacific college; lets cooperate.

OBVIOUS OBSERVATIONS

Bill Rarick seems rather interested in a freshman girl. Well, Bill, I believe the freshman class has got something.

It seems that two masculine figures W. B. and V. T. might come to blows over a certain sophomore lady.

The president of the freshman class states that the sophomores are nice people if you like 'em, and the less we see 'em the more we like 'em.

Some people are puzzled as to how Pinky can be sick all day and have a date that night.

A local college girl M. P. (freshman) makes good with a junior boy in the local high school. Say! what is wrong with the college boys.

ask. As editor this year I am at a decided disadvantage in not knowing many of you, and in not being very well-acquainted with the faculty, the college or its traditions.

A Word Should Be Said—

Concerning the advertisers in this issue of the Crescent. As various high school papers and no doubt in former issues of the Crescent have said, "The advertisers make this paper possible." They have something to sell and in addition are taking an interest in a major college activity. So the very next time you want a new shirt or feel the urge for a hamburger, dig out the Crescent and see who advertised that particular thing and then patronize them.

Thanks to the Men—

That have worked and are working so hard on the new dormitory are hereby extended. A long summer's job and a hard one too, almost completed. To Mr. Jones and Professor Skeene goes much of the credit. Both worked hard and faithfully on the project, also to Professor Sanders, Professor Macy, and Mr. Diment, they all did their part toward the completed work.

Columbus Day, Will Be—

October 12, the day when the now famous explorer first sighted the new world.

Canyon Hall Nears Completion

Carpenters are now in the final stages of construction on the remodeled girls' dormitory, Canyon hall, according to all indications.

During the summer the entire "insides" of the building were taken out and rebuilt, rooms are now completely plastered and all have hard wood floors.

The basement has a new cement floor and has been partitioned off into a dining room, kitchen, laundry and heating plant. Heat will be steam.

WHAT NEXT?

One of the latest innovations of science is a synthetic made of coke, limestone and salt, which when applied to the sheerest of silks or the heaviest of fabrics, renders them as impervious to the elements as glass. Coatings are clear, white, translucent or colored and are applicable to many articles of apparel or homefurnishings.

JOKES

The freshies stand,
The sophomores gawk,
The juniors watch,
The seniors talk.

Teacher: "Watch the black-board closely I will go through it again."

Teacher: "How would you define black as you hat?"

Willie: "Darkness that may be felt?"

"Where did you learn to ride a horse?"

"Around his neck"

Graduate: "Have you an opening for a bright energetic college graduate?"

Employer: "Yes, and don't slam it on your way out."

Soph.: "Why are your socks on wrong side out?"

Senior: "My feet are so hot I turned the hose on them."

The small boy was saying his prayers:

"Thank Mr. Roosevelt for the bread we eat;

"Thank Mr. Roosevelt for a place to sleep."

"Hey, Dad, who am I going to thank when Mr. Roosevelt is gone?"

The father replied, "Thank the Lord, son."

"Is my face dirty, or is it my imagination?"

"Your face isn't; I don't know about your imagination."

And then there's the one about the Scotchman who moved to the Sahara desert and began saving his money for a rainy day.

POME—

She looks at me with misty eyes,
That lass I love so well,
And with a voice of anguish cries,
"Say, aren't these grapefruit—?"

Beta Babe: "You've broken my heart—?"

Gamma gigolo: "I am glad of that. I was afraid it was a rib."

Yes, it's true that money talks. But it never gives itself away. Reformer (to prostrate man): So that is the work of demon rum, is it?

Prostrate Man: No sir, this is the work of a banana peel.

Committee—A body that keeps minutes and wastes hours.

Repatee—What you think of 10 minutes after you ought to have said it.

Epistle—The wife of an apostle.

Blotter—Something you look for while the ink dries.

Doctors—Cautious folk who prescribe in Latin and invoice in English.

POME—

Life is real, life is earnest,
We must strive to do our best;
And departing leave behind us
Notebooks that will help the rest.

"Have you heard the new Eskimo song?"

"No, What is it?"

"Freeze a jolly good fellow."

Two lovers walking down the street,

She trips, he murmur, "Careful sweet."

Now wed, they tread the self same street,

She trips, he growls, "Pick up your feet!"

Miss Lucy Wilson Is Bride of LeRoy Pierson Sept. 30

Miss Lucy Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Wilson of Newberg became the bride of LeRoy Pierson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Pierson of Aurora, in a ceremony performed by Stanley Keller at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the Christian church.

The bride wore a black velvet dress and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Lillian Wilson, who wore a pink dress and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Mr. Jim Hodson acted as best man.

The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli and the traditional white candelabra. Before the ceremony Virgil Nordyke sang "Because" accompanied by George Beagles who also played the wedding march from "Lohengrin."

Mrs. Pierson graduated from Pacific in 1938. Mr. Pierson is a member of this year's senior class. They are at home to students and friends at Fourth and Meridian streets.

PRES. WILL BE RALLY SPEAKER AT MEETING

President Pennington is to be the speaker at the Peace Rally of Portland Quarterly Meeting, October 13. Also the president is to speak on the topic "What Is America's Road to Peace" at the Center Lecture Forum Series in Portland November 12. This particular meeting will be an open forum with two speakers, the other one being Dr. G. Bernard Noble. Other speakers in the series are Lewis Brown, Louis Adamic, Jan Masaryk, Pierre Van Paassen, and Ruth Bryan Owen.

Lady: "Now, professor, I suppose that is one of those horrid pictures that you call art."

Prof.: "No lady, that is a mirror."

PARTY HONORS NEW FACULTY MEMBERS MONDAY, OCT. 2

A dessert party in honor of the new faculty members was held at the home of Miss Sutton Monday, October 2. Several games were played during the evening. Two contests, originated by President Pennington, were held, one being a crossword puzzle. The answers to the other one were names of members of the faculty.

Those present were: President and Mrs. Pennington; Mr. and Mrs. Weesner; Mr. and Mrs. Macy; Mr. and Mrs. Conover; Mr. and Mrs. Skene; Mr. and Mrs. Sanders; Mr. and Mrs. Jones, and daughter Marilyn; Miss Kendall; Mrs. Ramsay; Mr. Binford; and Miss Sutton.

Pacific Students, Faculty Attend Reception

Nearly 100 students and faculty members of Pacific College as well as members of the Friends church gathered in the basement of the church Friday evening to attend a reception in honor of Pacific's students and faculty.

In the reception line were President and Mrs. Levi T. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Gervas Carey, Mrs. Beulah Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sanders and Richard Binford.

Get acquainted games served to introduce most of the strangers and following the games group singing of rounds and favorite old songs was enjoyed.

Short speeches of welcome to the new students and faculty people were made by Mr. Carey, Friends minister, and Paul Michener, Sunday school superintendent of the Friends church. Responses were made by Irvin Atrops, president of the Pacific college student body, and President Pennington.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served by the social committee of the church which was the official hostess for the reception.

Formal Reception Held for Students

The formal reception for new students, sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A., was held Friday evening, September 22, in Woodmar Hall. Lula Roberts was in charge of the program.

Following a few games, Margaret Lou Parker and Alfreda Martin each gave vocal selections, accompanied by Esther May Weesner. Hazel Mary Houser played a piano number, Marguerite Barney and Esther May Weesner gave a piano duet, and Floyd Case presented several pieces on his accordion. Irene Swanson, Y. W. C. A. president; George Thomas, Y. M. C. A. president; President Pennington; Professor Macy; and Alfreda Martin, vice president of the student body, gave welcome speeches to the new students and faculty.

After the program, refreshments of punch and cookies were served.

The boys living in the dormitory this year are: Jim Webb from Manzanita, Oregon; Clyde Hadlock from Seattle, Washington; Kermit Dawalt from Newport, Oregon; Ladean Martin from Caldwell, Idaho; Howard McCurdy from Mena, Arkansas; Willis Barney from Oakville, Washington; Arnold Booth and Kenneth Booth from Metlakatla, Alaska; Galen Miller, Howard Hewitt, and Ed Daniels from Portland, Oregon; Fred Riehle from Rocklyn, Washington; Verlyn Thornsberry from Wapato, Washington was with us also for the first few weeks.

Boys' Dormitory News

Mr. Binford, the library instructor, from Guilford College, North Carolina, is also living in the dormitory.

Mr. Diment is governor of the boys' dormitory again this year.

Mr. Diment has been confined to his room the last week with an attack of the flu.

Harold Hewitt, Galen Miller, and Ed Daniels spent the last weekend at their homes in Portland.

Jim Webb spent the weekend at Butteville, Oregon, visiting with his aunt.

Ladean Martin spent last weekend working for Mrs. White on her cottage at the coast.

Kenneth Booth visited with his brother at Chemawa over the weekend two weeks ago.

A house meeting was called by Mr. Diment on September 25 to explain the rules of the dormitory and clean up all questions which were brought up. We also decided to elect a president at the next meeting, so we nominated a committee to put up some candidates for this office. The committee chosen consists of Harold Hewitt, Galen Miller, and Clyde Hadlock.

MARGARET LOU PARKER TO WED BROCK DIXON OCT. 20

Miss Margaret Lou Parker, Sophomore at Pacific College last year, will be married to Brock Dixon October 20. The announcement was made at a tea held at the Parker home on Sunday afternoon.

The wedding date and names were announced to the 60 guests present on tiny scrolls placed on each plate.

Mr. Dixon, who graduated from Pacific college in the class of 1939, is a member of the faculty of the Yale, South Dakota, high school.

Out-of-town guests attending the tea Sunday were Mrs. J. Ray Pemberton, Salem, an aunt of Margaret Lou; Mrs. Chancey Gettman, Dallas, a cousin; and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stannard, Salem, grandparents of Margaret Lou.

Miss Parker will leave Sunday night from Portland for Huron, South Dakota where the wedding will be held.

FROM THE SIDELINES

Another year rolls around and another crop of potential grid aspirants are making their debut in P. C. uniforms. As usual the freshmen will be holding down more than their share of the positions of this year's eleven; however, six lettermen have returned to bolster up the ranks. Atrops, a three year letterman, weighing 195 pounds will hold down the center position. Erwin has shown much improvement over last year and will stop many of the enemies' center smashes ere the season has terminated. Thornsberry, who has one letter to his credit, will be the heaviest man on the line, tipping the scales near the 220 mark. "Tiny" has not been turning out to date because of work in a service station, but has made arrangements so he will be able to turn out at five o'clock. His huge bulk looming up in tackle position is enough to make any small college coach gaze with admiration. Bob Siefloff, another one striper, will fill the stationary guard position. Although Bob is not quite so heavy, his lack in weight is made up by his ability to fight the hardest when the going is the toughest. He is no bantam weight at that, tipping the balances at 165. The other guard position is filled by L. Martin, who has not been turning out the last two years. "Lad-dean," who made a letter when a freshman, has improved greatly during his lengthy period of inactivity and should cause opposing teams no end of trouble. Pierson, a three-year letterman, will hold down one of the wing positions. Coach Keller has two returning lettermen, Cunningham and George Thomas, to make up half of his backfield. "Georgie" is about the sweetest little blocking half P. C. has seen in many a moon while Norwood Cunningham, the boy with the aristocratic name, can plough through center or off tackle making holes if there aren't any for him to go through.

So much for the lettermen. Here is where the real surprise comes in. Out of the freshman class has come a group of potentials that really look good. Although many of the boys have not ever been in football suit before, they are picking up the fundamentals very rapidly. In the backfield Keller has Clyde Hadlock, Arnold and Kenny Booth. Hadlock, who weighs a mere 217, packs plenty of power for line plays and he also passes. Kenny and Arnold are the fastest men turning out this year. They should net a good many yards around end for old P. C. before the season is over. They have begun to show their ability to swing those hips already. In the line Beese, Chase, Gwinn, Earl Spirup, Smith, Daywalt, Daniels, Macy, Hays, Spirup make up the second string backfield which has shown great progress against the first string. Stien, Riehle, Ashwill are fighting over their positions. James Kyle, who started turning out last Tuesday, looks as if he may bolster up the line a great deal. Although he is hampered by an ankle that is just mending the 3 year letterman from Cascade Locks will come in mighty handy.

The main reason why Coach Keller's heart is bubbling over with enthusiasm is the big turn out he has been having every night, for no team is any stronger than its reserves. Some of the fellows who are holding down positions on the second string are making the first stringers get in and dig to hold their positions. If all the fellows who are coming out now keep their regularity of suiting up every night, P. C. should have a team that she may well be proud of!

Watch this boy Daniels just as a tip. If he keeps on improving somebody on the first string had better watch out.

PACIFIC TO STAGE GAY MINSTREL SHOW

will provide an opportunity for a larger number of students to participate in the program as well as to demonstrate new and untried talent. Third, the students recognized the economy of such a production which required no expenditure for royalty and but a small outlay for staging. In this way will be provided the chance to make some money for the school. And, fourth, a minstrel is more easily adapted to becoming an all-college function which will include faculty participation and cooperation than some other types of entertainment.

For those who are unacquainted with the content of minstrels it will be of interest to learn that they include singing, instrumental numbers, end-men with old and new jokes, dramatic skits, variety acts of almost every kind. No performer should consider his acts as ineligible or unsuitable for a tryout for the minstrel. Tryouts for end-men and auditions for program numbers will be held on the fifteenth of October.

PLAYER BREAKS ARM IN GRID TILT

Football games with Chemawa and Reed have been postponed. A practice tilt with Chemawa scheduled for last Wednesday was called off due to poor weather. The Reed game slated for last Friday was postponed because of a conflict in schedules. Reed played Multnomah a regulation game, although the latter school had intended to play six man football this season.

Larry Rickert, reserve left-half on the Newberg high school squad, broke his left arm in a practice scrimmage with the college team Tuesday. Although no one is exactly sure how it happened, the accident occurred on an off-tackle stop. The college squad joins with the Tiger team in extending deepest sympathy to Larry.

Y.W.C.A. HAS 100% MEMBERSHIP THIS YEAR

The Y. W. had its first meeting of the year on Wednesday, Sept. 27. This was the annual membership drive, and we are glad to announce that again this year the Y. W. has a 100% membership. A very interesting program was put on in which Mrs. Sanders gave a reading and Hazel Mary Houser played a piano solo.

The new members were installed into Y. W. at the meeting Wednesday, Oct. 5, at a very impressive candlelight ceremony in the chapel. Miss Sutton, the faculty adviser, and Irene Swanson, Y. W. president, gave welcoming speeches. Marguerite Barney and Esther Mae Weesner played piano solos.

The motto for Y. W. this year is "I am ready for every good work." We are all looking forward to an enjoyable as well as a profitable year in the Y. W. C. A.

COLLEGE PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN OCT. 8

The first college radio program of this year will be over KOAC at Corvallis, Wednesday evening, October 18, at 8:30. President Pennington will give a talk on Shakespeare. Mrs. Florence Tate Murdock will furnish the music by singing some Shakespearean songs. All are invited to listen to this our first program.

cepts which are incapable of being carried into practice, or of which the practice is to be postponed until all shall be persuaded to act upon them. We cannot doubt that they are incumbent now, and that we have in the prophetic Scriptures the distinct imitation of their direct application not only to individuals, but to nations also. (Isaiah ii, 4, Micah iv. 1.) When nations conform their laws to this divine teaching, wars must necessarily cease.

We would, in humility, but in faithfulness to our Lord, express our firm persuasion that all the exigencies of civil government and social order may be met under the banner of the Prince of Peace, in strict conformity with his commands."

We wish to express our approval of our national neutrality law, and urge the continuance of the arms embargo.

We call upon our representatives in the national government to keep America out of the war now raging in Europe, and out of all wars, not merely nor mainly to save us from suffering, but to preserve one nation relatively free from the madness of war and one great power in a position to help lead the world back to peace.

We call upon our own members to be true to the statement of our faith and the requirements of our Lord and Master. And we pledge our wholehearted support to all who may become involved in difficulty through faithfulness to the Highest Power and the Supreme Law.

We wish to express our unwavering loyalty to the government of the United States, and our willingness and eagerness to give any service to the government which our consciences will permit; but we are convinced that in case of conflict between the requirements of any human organization and the requirements of God, "We ought to obey God rather than men."
